MIDATLANTIC CARDIOVASCULAR ASSOCIATES EXPANDS PRACTICE WITH ADDITION OF HOPKINS-TRAINED PHYSICIAN

Dr. Henry Sun, Johns Hopkins Hospital Trained Physician, Joins Premier Maryland Heart Practice

(Baltimore) – MidAtlantic Cardiovascular Associates has announced the expansion of its practice with the addition of Dr. Henry Sun, a clinical and interventional cardiologist, who trained at Johns Hopkins Hospital where he completed his Cardiology and Interventional Cardiology Fellowships. Dr. Sun also completed his Internship and Residency Training in the Osler Medical Housestaff Program at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

“It’s our top priority to provide our patients with the best medical care from the most qualified physicians and we are honored to welcome Dr. Sun to our team,” said Robin T. Levy, chief executive officer of MidAtlantic Cardiovascular Associates.

Dr. Sun, who earned his Medical Degree from the University of Texas, Galveston, is trained to perform coronary and peripheral vascular interventions. He has additional training in cardiac CT, nuclear cardiology, as well as echocardiography. Dr. Sun has participated in many research projects and completed a Sarnoff Research Fellowship at Johns Hopkins Medical Institutions in 1999. He has published numerous articles in the field of platelet reactivity and received Young Investigator Awards from the Northwestern Cardiovascular Forum, American Heart Association ATVB Council, and the Platelet Colloquium.

Dr. Sun will be seeing patients for cardiac consultation, management of cardiovascular disease, and offering diagnostic catheterization and interventional cardiology services at regional hospitals including Franklin Square Hospital, Greater Baltimore Medical Center, Saint Agnes Hospital, St. Joseph Medical Center, Sinai Hospital of Baltimore, Union Memorial Hospital and Upper Chesapeake Medical Center.

MidAtlantic Cardiovascular Associates offers full service, responsive heart care through its practice of 58 board-certified cardiologists and cardiac surgeons who deliver comprehensive heart care in its 12 offices and through affiliations with leading regional hospitals. MidAtlantic Cardiovascular offers same-day appointments, early evening appointments, and even weekend appointments...because heart care can't wait. More information can be found at www.midatlanticcardio.com.
